

Banks should not be permitted to call customers any more than other tele-marketers. If I need any information from my bank, I will call them. Please stop this from happening